Sermon Notes

The Age of Innocence
(Freedom)

We can best understand the responsibilities and importance of the age of innocence by asking pertinent questions.

1. What was the crowning act of God's earthly creation?
2. What was the spiritual condition of man after his creation?
3. What was man's responsibility immediately after his creation?
4. What was the test that man failed?
5. What did man's failure introduce into the human race?
6. God brought judgement upon man for his failure to obey his God-given responsibility. Why?
7. What were the results of man's fall into sin?
8. What was God's gracious provision for man?

God knew the outcome of this age would be failure, man needs to be shown he is weak. We cannot save ourselves. The failures of man are recorded in the Bible to show that we fail over and over in many different circumstances. .
